

ACCOMMODATION CANCELLATION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Should a booking be cancelled less than 90 days (29 February 2022) prior to arrival, a 10% cancellation fee will be charged for the full stay.
- Should a booking be cancelled less than 60 days (29 March 2022) prior to arrival, a 50% cancellation fee will be charged for the full stay.
- Should a booking be cancelled less than 30 days (29 April 2022) prior to arrival, a 100% cancellation fee will be charged for the full stay.
- Should the guest check out prior to their departure date – all prepaid money will be non-refundable.
- No Shows will be charged for the full stay.
- Cancellations and amendments must be submitted in writing and acknowledged by Meetagain Konferens.
- No refunds due to cancellation can be given after 29 April 2022.
- All fees are payable in Swedish Krona (SEK). Any short payment resulting from bank charges and/or exchange rate fluctuations will be charged back to the attendee.
- Meetagain reserves the right to amend the listed rates should the prevailing rate of VAT (currently 12%) be increased or changed. The same applies should any new levy or tax be imposed.
- Accommodation bookings are confirmed once payment has been received in full.
- Attendees are liable for any additional charges incurred during their stay and will be required to provide credit card details on check in, in order to cover such extras.

We strongly recommend booking your accommodation through Meetagain Konferens. If you look for bedrooms via the hotels directly, they might show as fully booked. However, Meetagain might still have availability with the blocks they have reserved for EAFS.

Please be aware of possible scams that are trying to take advantage of the EAFS Conference participants and exhibitors, offering all type of services.

Note that EAFS does not send emails via Gmail/Yahoo/Hotmail accounts.

Do not click on any links that look suspicious, and always use the links that you find on the EAFS website to register or to book accommodations.
