

Date
1 October 2021

www.eafs2022.eu
eafs2022@polisen.se

Call for Abstracts

EAFS 2022

Stockholm, 30 May – 3 June, 2022

Abstract deadline 19 December 2021 – Abstract portal

Dear Colleagues,

You are invited to submit an abstract for the possibility to present at the European Academy of Forensic Science (EAFS) conference, to be held from May 30th to June 3rd 2022, in Stockholm, Sweden. The conference motto, “Together for a Safer World”, expresses the importance of researchers, practitioners and the industry working together, across borders, for a safer society.

The EAFS 2022 program is divided into 10 Tracks and five Themes. Our Tracks cover almost the entire field of Forensic Science and through our Themes we aim to move Forensic Science forward and highlight some of the most important aspects for the future. You can find more details on the Themes and Tracks at the conference website, www.eafs2022.eu.

Themes

Forensic Data Science

Forensic Social Responsibility

Forensic Technology Innovation

Forensic Human Factors

Digital Transformation of the Forensic Process

Organizers

European Network of Forensic
Science Institutes – ENFSI
www.enfsi.eu

Polisen
Swedish Police

Swedish Police Authority
National Forensic
Centre
www.nfc.se/en

Tracks and sub-tracks

Chemistry

- Drugs
- Explosives
- Fingermark development
- Gunshot Residues (GSR)
- Ignitable Liquids and Fire Debris Analysis
- Paint and Glass
- Textile and Hair

Digital Evidence

- Artificial Intelligence
- Computer, cybercrime, malware and database forensics
- Digital Imaging
- Forensic visualization (VR, AR, 3D)
- Mobile device, network and location forensics
- Vehicle forensics

DNA/Forensic Genetics

- Body Fluids
- Disaster Victim Identification (DVI)
- Evaluative DNA
- Investigative DNA

Forensic medicine and Toxicology

How to submit

You may contribute to the conference by submitting your abstract (maximum of 1700 characters plus title of 120 characters) through the conference website, www.eafs2022.eu. If your contribution is accepted you will be invited to present your abstract in either an oral (20 minutes including questions and change of speaker) or a poster presentation as decided by the Scientific Committee. You may also contribute by arranging a workshop at the conference; proposals may be submitted through the conference web page.

Important Dates

Workshop proposal deadline – October 31, 2021

Abstract submission deadline – December 19, 2021

Notification of Acceptance – January 30, 2022

Conference dates – 30 May – 3 June, 2022

Marks, impressions and biometric traces

- Body and gait
- Document, handwriting and signature
- Face recognition
- Firearms and tools
- Footwear and garment
- Friction ridge skin
- Speech recognition

Scene of Crime

- Bloodstain pattern analysis
- Capturing the crime scene
- Complex Scenes
- Fire and explosion investigation
- Forensic Archaeology and Anthropology
- Implementing new technologies at crime scenes
- Trace evidence and interpretation
- Training and education for crime scene investigators

European Perspective

Forensic Management

- “Doing the Right Thing”
- “Doing Things the Right Way”
- Education and Training

Forensic Statistics

Legal & Ethical Aspects

Organizers

European Network of Forensic
Science Institutes – ENFSI
www.enfsi.eu

Polisen
Swedish Police

Swedish Police Authority
National Forensic
Centre
www.nfc.se/en